25X1X

The infantry units in Craiova (R 33/34 / A 83) were equipped with the following arms up to mid-March 1950:

Rifles, model ZB, with clips for five rounds (1)
 Grenade launchers for rifles
 Light machine guns, model ZB (24/38) (1)
 Light machine guns, model L.S. (2)
 Heavy machine guns, model ZB (1)
 Submachine guns, model Beretta (3)
 Submachine guns, model Gritz (manufactured in Cugir (R 25/60)) (4)
 75-mm AT guns, model Iestorescu, used by the AT company of the artillery battalion of an infantry regiment (5)
 75-mm field guns without muzzle brake, used by the field gun battery of the artillery battalion of an infantry regiment.
 20-mm AA guns, model Oerlikon or Gustloff, used by the AAA platoons of the artillery battalion of an infantry regiment (6)
 Mortars of about 80 mm caliber.

25X1A

Comment:

The report again indicates that most of the Rumanian arms are not of Soviet origin. It is therefore assumed that the Soviet Union has not yet made large-scale deliveries of arms to Rumania.
